1. The Office of Training and Education (OTE) is facing significant personnel turnover in the coming months. A combination of retirements and reassignments will create several vacancies. [redacted] is our choice for assignment to a key position and I feel it necessary to ask that he return to OTE on or about 1 June 1985. One of the first tasks I have in mind for [redacted] is the conduct of the D0 needs survey.

2. This has been a very profitable assignment for [redacted]. Your willingness to give him substantial work is much appreciated.
